

Guy and Linda Vestal

Guy and Linda Vestal are native Californians and have lived in Texas since 1992. They own a portable x-ray company in Plano.

Guy has always loved cars and has always owned some kind of sports car. His first car was a 1930 Model A Ford painted Chevy truck, red. He found his current hot rod on the internet. It is a 1930 Model A Ford with a 1932 grill with metal body, fiberglass fenders, a 350 Chevy engine and trans, custom paint and interior and was purchased from a North Texan in near perfect condition.
